PRIMARY ELECTION,

Says the Court, Must Be "Held Under the Statutes."

Court Refuses Beckham Eligibility Certificate, But Says His Name Must Go On Ballot.

Frankfort, Ky., March 25.—The Court of Appeals holds that Beckham's name must go on the ballot, and that a primary election can be held under the law.

The court says it must be understood that the only question decided is that the committee has no right to raise the question of eligibility of one who desires to become a candidate before the primary, and for that reason refuse to place his name on the ballot.

DECISION IN BECKHAM CASE.
In the case of Young vs. Beckham, Judge Paynter delivering the opinion, says in brief:

"The purpose of this proceeding is to compel the Democratic Committee to place the name of the ap-pellee on the ballot as a candidate for the office of Governor before the Democratic primary election. The question of his eligibility has been raised and the committee has refused to place his name on the ballot. The question to be determined upon the pleadings is whether the governing authority of the party has called a primary election, and if so whether the statute authorizes the holding of a primary election to nominate candidates for State offices whether the committee can refuse to place his name upon the ballot because they think he is ineligible to re-election; whether by proceedings in mandamus the committee may be compelled to place his name upon the ballot used as a candidate for Governor.

"The first question is easily disposed of. It is averred in the petition that the governing authority of the party has called a primary election, and it is not denied by the answer, therefore the court must proceed upon the idea that the primary has been called by the governing authority of the party. From the Sections 1550 and 1565 it is manifest that the Legislature intended to provide for a primary election for the nomination of State officers.

"Section 1,565 provides that the article shall apply to primary elections held for the purpose of nominating candidates for the State offices. A difficulty arises from the fact that the law is not definite and certain as to how the result of a primary election shall be ascertained and certified to the Secretary of State."

THE MEACHAM CASE.
The opinion in the Meacham case was delivered by Judge Hobson. It follows:

"This court in the case of Beckham vs. Young decided that the committee or governing authority of a political party in the State was authorized under Article 12, Chapter 41, General Statutes to hold a primary election to nominate candidates for State offices. If the committee or governing authority called the primary then it would have to be held under the statute and the court had no jurisdiction to enjoin the holding of it. The court has no more right to enjoin the holding of a primary election if called by the governing authority of a party than it would have to enjoin the holding of a regular election.

"The calling of a primary is a party matter to be determined by the party authorities and the court has no power to interfere with this action. It is a matter to be settled by the party and by the authorities of the party, and if complaint is made of the action of the party it must be made to the proper party authorities.

"Under the facts as shown we are of opinion the primary was lawfully called. Judgment affirmed."

TRIUMPHANT TOUR

Of the Next Circuit Judge in Calloway.

Bush is Carrying the War Into Judge Cook's Own
County.

Murray, Ky., March 23.—There was a tremendous crowd here today to hear the candidates speak.
Probably 2000 people were in town.
The court house was packed to overflowing and many could not get in. There were several candidates present, but interest centered in the race for judge. Judge Bush met Judge Cook in his own town and used the Trigg county trust fund disclosures with telling effect.
As nearly as could be estimated, the sentiment was about equally divided between Bush and Cook, with Bush stock rising. Judge Cook's managers here are very blue over the outlook. They admit that nothing short of 1,000 majority in Calloway will give him even a fighting chance, and they are not sure of a 100 majority. In fact both sides are claiming this county with equal confidence. They will hold joint discussions all over the county this week and next and if Bush makes the same telling speech that he made today, he will carry Calloway county by a good majority.

SAME IN LYON.

Bush Went in Strong and Came Out Stronger.

Eddyville, Ky., March 21.—Judge Bush and Judge Cook finished a week of joint discussions in this county today. Bush's attacks on Judge Cook's record, both in regard to the Trigg disclosures and the mortifying record in the higher court, were instrumental in changing many votes and Lyon county is no longer doubtful territory. Bush will carry it by from 200 to 400 majority. He has developed into one of the finest campaigners who ever canvassed this county. One or two silly campaign lies have been started in this county to stop what appears to be a stampede to Bush, but they have fallen flat.

ICE MONOPOLY.

Owensboro Up Against the Proposition—Lucky Hopkinsville.

According to The Messenger, Owensboro's two ice factories have formed a combination and will double prices this year. Last year ice was sold for 20 cents in 100-lb. lots. If Owensboro is to be deprived of competition in ice, the city is to be commiserated. Fortunately Hopkinsville is in a position to enjoy the blessing of cheap ice again this year. The Consumers Ice Company, owned by nearly 200 of the citizens, have settled the question of an ice monopoly and the rate of 25 cents per 100 lbs. will not be increased. The Consumers Company has kept its wagons running all winter, and with the approach of warm weather will prepare for a great increase over last season's business.

RECEIPTS HEAVY.

Medium to Good Tobacco From $10 to $11.50.

R. M. Wooldridge & Co. made heavy sales of the weed on the floor again this week, nearly 400,000 pounds being disposed of. Prices were good on all grades offered.

Some sales on the breaks were also made and considerable tobacco in the hogheads was sold privately. Cask sales amounted to 115 hogheads and for the year 731 hogheads. Receipts for the week were 485 hogheads and for the year 4,720 hogheads. Prices realized on the weed sold in the hog-head were very satisfactory all around. Plug wrappers brought from $10 to $11.50. Some of this sort has sold as high as $12.50.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Of Various Candidates in Ugly Man Contest.

Strong Pleas Made For Support
by Leading Aspirants.

J. Parrish Meacham.

Gracey, Ky., March 23.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:

—In making my formal announcement as a candidate in your contest for the ugliest man, I desire to state that I had never been as sanguine in regard to my ugliness as my friend Tuggle. I however realized that I was a source of amusement to all whom I met, but was vain enough to think that it was my good looks or popularity that caused my friends to smile whenever they met me; but since some one unknown to me has placed my name among those of the other candidates, my friends have gathered around me and in large numbers requested me to run. Some of them have gone so far as to assure me of my success by commenting on some of my points which they term my winning cards, such as my saddle skirt ears, long neck, attenuated shape and many others which I will not attempt to mention. I have about become convinced that they and not myself are correct and that I am a man that will be hard to beat. Therefore I announce myself as a candidate and place my claims in the hands of my friends and the public in general, and in doing so I ask that if any of them have never seen me, that they try and do so before casting their votes. (Seeing in this case, I think will be convincing). Some of my most ardent supporters have gone so far as to venture the assertion that any voter that lives within a radius of one hundred miles of Gracey, my home, would always feel amply repaid "upon sight of me" for making the trip for that purpose alone, though I will not pass judgment myself, as my friend Tuggle did, but leave that for you to do, but will suggest if you want your conscience to feel easy at the close of this contest that you see me before casting your vote. Hoping that you will do so and give me a fair and impartial consideration is all I have to ask. Your friend,
J. PARRISH MEACHAM.

Olney & Hison.

Pembroke, Ky., March 20.

Desiring to communicate with my friends and admirers, I could think of no surer or better way than through the columns of your most valuable paper, which finds its way into the hearts and homes of all the people. Now, Mr. Editor, I find myself in a most embarrassing position and beg, yes, appeal to all to help me win the race for the ugliest man in the county.

Of course I have some formidable rivals, but as that know me will, I know, cast their votes for me and any who are in doubt will be readily convinced by calling at Wilson & Keith's store, in Pembroke, Ky.
Here I am somewhat of a stranger, but all who have seen me have pledged their support without the asking. It is a great compliment, I think, to be a contestant in such a race and to be a winner is almost too much glory for any man. We see handsome men so often that they no longer attract the attention of the passers by, but who is it that is so void of appreciation as to fail to admire and reverence as fine a specimen of ugliness as your scribe, more familiarly known as "D. K." Why, sir, I have the honor of being the son of a man who carried in his pocket a knife won in the same kind of a race years ago and it is an undisputed fact that I am a most wonderful improvement on his ugliness.
I see in your list L. A.
Tuggle, Parrish Meacham, Wallace West and others but these do not do the subject justice at all, for their ugliness extends only to the bone and is not very deep and anybody can be that ugly, but mine goes through the marrow; hence you see mine is the strongest claim.

Bring in your coupons, ladies and gentlemen, tie your blue ribbon on my arm and help me to show to the world that while I may not be as brilliant as some of old Christian's boys, yet I too have won a

SHIFTLESS

Is the term generally applied to the man who lets his fences fall into ill repair, while he whistles and whittles his time away. But there's many a well-dressed, prosperous man who is equally shiftless. He feels his health breaking down, but does nothing to repair it. His stomach is "weak." His heart and liver trouble him. He neglects his health until a total breakdown comes.

Men and women who, by self neglect, become at last victims of nervous prostration and general debility will find certain help and an almost certain cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The common cause of debility is lack of nutrition, because the stomach is diseased and the food eaten cannot be properly digested and assimilated. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and restores physical health by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"I am an engineer by trade and the hard work and worry of running a large engine brought on nervous prostration," writes Mr.
Chas. F. Dixon, of Arbutnot, Col. Co., Colo. "A friend recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to me and I bought one bottle; I thought it helped me, so continued the use of it until I had taken six bottles. I feel better than ever in my life.
Am not a particle nervous, can work hard all day and sleep sound at night. I set only think so, but I know that the Golden Medical Discovery cured me, and therefore I will recommend it to others."

OLNEY M. WILSON,
The ugliest man in the State.

Bob White.

To the people of Christian county, Ky.

Doubtless many of the people have forgotten me, as I have not been with you in Christian county for several years. I have been in most of your homes and built air castles for the happiness and success of you all, as well as for my own benefit. If you have forgotten me, come into Forbes Mfg. Co. and look at my personage once more and I am sure you will say me as of old, the ugliest man in Western Kentucky.

As I am with Forbes Mfg. Co. for 1903 I will have the pleasure of meeting most of you again, and as you have grieved me for being ugly in the past, please vote for me in the Ugly Man's Contest and make me happy by receiving the prize. You have had fun at my expense free of cost to you, so it is time for me to be made happy at your expense. This my last and only plea for your votes, as I am a poor boy and have to work very hard to earn my support.

Most of you can remember Bob White that worked for Winfree Bros. in 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897. So please aid me once, and make me happy by voting for me. I am certainly the ugliest man in Western Ky. Make me feel proud of being ugly once in life.

Your ugly friend

R. W. WHITE.

Tom Tandy.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 21.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:
There has been so much pressure brought to bear upon me that I have consented to allow my name to go before you to be voted for in the Kentuckian's Uglyest Man Contest and in presenting to you this mug of mine, that Dame Nature has so thoroughly mutilated, I feel assured that no fair minded lady or gentleman will fail to see that I am entitled to the honor of being the ugliest man in Christian county. I am not like some of the candidates that are afraid for the people to see them for fear that they are not so ugly after you know them. But I believe the more you see of me the uglier I look to you, and I can be seen anywhere and at all times and if there are any readers of this paper that have never looked upon this freak of a face of mine and will let me know it I will gladly show it to them, provided there are a crowd together, for I know it will scare any one alone.

Now, I am glad this is to be a women's suffrage election, for they know an ugly man when they see one, and I know I will get their votes. So now, I am willing to leave this to you, and believe I will win, if merit wins.

Yours hideously,

THOS. J. TANDY.

Charlie Smithson.

Longview, Ky., March 23.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:
At the earnest and urgent request of my friends, I have concluded to enter the Uglyest Man's Contest, believing that I am entitled to that honor.

As to my friend, L. A. Tuggle, the fact that he has a position in T. M. Jones' dry goods house is proof to any one that he is entitled to a place on the ticket, but he does not merit that honor, for more than once he has denied being ugly. I invite a careful investigation of my past record, from the time I hit the grit in the Mahoning river in old Virginia 47 years ago, to the present time. Through sunshine and shadows I have ever been the same. What nature failed to do, time, persimmons and saw dust completed. I have never asked the public to support me and I solemnly promise if elected to be as I have always been--old fashioned ugly. In conclusion I will assure you if you cast your votes for me that you will not regret it.

Yours truly,

C. W. SMITHSON.

Some People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin sisters.
You can't separate them.
And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache. If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Don's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.
Mr. Henry Murphy, of 648 Broadway, Memphis, Tenn., professional nurse says: "For a year or two pain and weakness across the loins and difficulty with the kidney secretions indicated that my kidneys were either overtaxed or weakened. All my knowledge of medicine failed to bring relief, and ever anxious to get rid of the trouble before it became chronic, I got a box of Don's Kidney Pills at Hammer & Ballard's drug store. They performed their work very satisfactorily. I know of a great many others in Memphis who have been benefited by Don's Kidney Pills."

His friends, I am sure, will rally to his support to a man, and all we ask is a fair count, which I believe his friend, Bob Howell, will look after in your city. Since the notice given in your paper that you would not be a candidate yourself, I have concluded that I would stand a chance to win, and so announce myself as a candidate for the honor of being the ugliest man in Christian county, (or any other county). Yours truly,

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

John Willis and Laura Jeffries were killed and Frank Rowden and Lucy Coleman badly wounded at Indianapolis by Albert Wright. All are negroes.

So Sweet and Pleasing in Taste, Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies, it is my favorite, and I must confess to my many friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it--to speedily cure a cough or a cold; and it is so sweet and so pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c and $1 bottle at R. C. Hardwick's.

A sensation in United States army circles was caused by the wife of Capt. Broom deserting her husband in Porto Rico.

I owe my whole life to Burdock Blood Bitters. Scrofulous sores covered my body. I seemed beyond cure. B. B. B. has made a perfectly well woman of me. Mrs. Chas. Hutton, Berville, Mich.

Clerk of Christian County, subject to the action of the Republican party. Election Nov. 1903.President Castro, of Venezuela, has resigned but his congress is urging him to hold on. The matter is still unsettled.The anti-machine candidates for governor will open the campaign in the city of Louisville on the night of April 1st and follow it up with a vigorous speaking campaign out in the State.The coal strike arbitration is pleasing to the President. It is practically a victory for the miners, who are given shorter hours, a ten per cent. increase in wages and a contract for three years.Having failed to get the certificate of eligibility from the court of appeals asked for in his petition, it is up to Beckham to get upon the stump and defend himself from the attacks of the constitution upon his desire to lead the party into litigation if not into defeat.Judge Cook is reported to have stated in one of his recent speeches that the report of the Wallonia speaking was published in the Kentuckian as an advertisement.
The Judge is very much mistaken if he thinks this. It was a news item, pure and simple, and we have so far not heard that the correctness of the report has been called in question. It not only told what Judge Bush said, but gave Judge Cook's defense in the matter.Secretary Root has embarked upon the extensive work of compiling a complete roster of the soldiers on both sides of the Civil War.
There is no complete record of Confederate soldiers and the work is an important one to them. The Colonial records of the revolutionary war are also very hard to get at, as many people find out who attempt to trace the records of their ancestors. It would be a good work if the records of all the colonies could be gathered together and kept by the War Department.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

the best physicians in this country best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The per-

BECKHAM'S INELIGIBILITY.

If Gov. Beckham continues in the race for re-election, he must remain suspended in midair so far as his eligibility is concerned. The court of Appeals refuses to pass upon his eligibility, saying that the committee must put anybody's name on the ballot who wants to run and has no power to raise questions of eligibility. In other words, Judge Can-trill's decision that Beckham was eligible is set aside with an implied rebuke to the lower court for attempting to pass upon it. This leaves Beckham most unfortunately situated. Since his eligibility can not be properly passed upon until after re-election, he must go before the people with nine-tenths of his own friends entertaining serious doubts of his eligibility. His candidacy, if he succeeds by fraud or otherwise, in forcing himself upon the ticket, will be a constant menace to party harmony and will invite defeat at the polls as the surest way to avoid another period of disturbance and expensive litigation.If he should be nominated and should receive a bare plurality of votes as he did before, it is the expressed intention of the Republicans to contest his election on the ground of his ineligibility under the constitution and to take the contest to the United States Supreme Court for final adjudication. They say it is true that in the case of Taylor vs. Beckham the Supreme Court declined to take jurisdiction of the contest, but that was because it was a question of facts as to whether illegal votes were cast or not; that in this case it would be a question solely of constitutional construction, and that the United States Supreme Court in the case of Boyd vs. Thayer, from Nebraska, decided that it had and would take jurisdiction in state election contests where the construction of a state constitution is involved.Judge Bush is still prosecuting a most aggressive campaign and in his speeches in Calloway this week has placed Judge Cook more than ever on the defensive. Judge Cook made some allusion to the fact that some "goldbugs" are helping Bush.
Bush retorted by charging upon Cook that his manager in Calloway John H. Keys, voted and worked against Judge Linn in 1895 and supported Judge Breathitt, and that Judge Cook himself voted for a Republican in 1898 for county superintendent. As the record in this case was an open one, Judge Cook admitted the truth of the charge.
Four candidates were running, J.
W. Forrest, H. L. Grogan and Ed.
P. Phillips, Democrats, and J. H.
Farless, Republican. Judge Cook voted against all the Democrats and voted for the Republican. This strong local issue in Calloway is causing Judge Cook almost as much trouble in Calloway as the trust fund issue caused in Trigg.The Court of Appeals, the whole bench concurring, decides that—The question of Gov. Beckham's eligibility cannot now be raised.
The committee must put his name on the primary ballot.The courts have no authority to interfere with the primary called for May 9.The primary must be held under the law, with lawfully appointed officers.The court does not decide whether the committee had the proper primary authority to call the primary.
The court does not declare Gov.
Beckham ineligible.The anti-Beckham men claim the victory in the eligibility case, and in the declaration that the primary must be held under the law.
Gov. Beckham will remain in the race.The anti-Beckham forces find in the opinion of the court encouragement for renewed effort in their fight.

AN ARCTIC MEAL.

Getting Supper on the Polar Ice Sheet Is Picturesque.Dogs were unthicketed and fastened, as usual, and then each of the Eskimos climbed over the ice foot with his snow knife and disappeared behind the ice parapet, where the other two were already cutting snow blocks, writes Robert E. Peary, in Oating. I fastened my dogs, got out their ration of pemmican, cut it up, and fed them, standing by with a whip in hand to see that there was no bullying and that each dog got his share. Then I unpacked the cooker, oil can, and kitchen box, passing them up the ice foot as high as I could reach. I did not wait to commence my preparations for supper, but with a few strokes of the spade excavated a niche in the snowbank, put the cooker in out of the wind, filled the lamp with oil and the boiler with ice, placed a few snow blocks around it for still better shelter, and lighted up.By the time the igloo was completed I had enough water melted for our tea and supper was entirely ready by the time my men had fed the dogs and they lost no time in freezing their clothing of snow, and joining me in the igloo. Still less time was consumed in putting away the tea and biscuits and pemmican, and less again in falling off to a dreamless slumber.

The Great Louisville Herald Startles the State—Offers $3.00 for Every Reader of Its Weekly.Word has just been received that The Louisville Herald, the new daily paper, in order to extend the circulation of its weekly, is giving $3 free to every new subscriber.
The publishers of this paper, it seems, have made a deal involving many thousands of dollars, with the N. D. Thompson publishing company, of St. Louis, whereby a year's subscription to the Journal of Agriculture, considered the leading farm paper since 1866, regular price $1; the American Farmers' Horse Book, written by the distinguished Dr. Andrew Darling, containing 616 pages, regular price $2.95, and the Weekly Herald for one year, price 50 cents, a total cost of $4.25, may be obtained by sending to the publishers of the Herald $1.25 either in stamps or money.This is one of the most generous offers ever made by a Kentucky newspaper. It is not surprising, though, as the publishers have shown great enterprise in all directions. The Weekly Herald today stands first in the South. Truthful and new, it has secured in a short time a firm place in the hearts of many Kentuckians. The Journal of Agriculture is recognized as an authority on all matters pertaining to the culture and growth of nature's products. The American Farmers' Horse Book is the very latest authority on horses, prepared by Dr. Andrew Darling, who is known in this community through his connection with a famous breeding farm at Lexington. This book gives accurate information about different breeds, the principles of breeding, the best methods of training in short, everything about horses that is worth knowing.It is not known how long this great offer will be open. Letters containing $1.25 are acknowledged promptly. The Journal of Agriculture, the Farmers' Horse Book and The Weekly Herald arrive with surprising promptness, considering the great number of orders which the Herald must be receiving daily.The exciting contest in the Henderson judicial district will close in a primary election to-morrow. The contests between Henson and Ye-man for judge and Dixon and Flournoy for commonwealth's attorney, are both close and doubtful. The primary was not called off in spite of Allie Young's pronouncement.

A Remarkable Speech.

The court-room at New Boston, Texas, has been the scene of a most remarkable case, being tried, that of the State of Texas, vs. Col.
John Hallum, charged with shooting W. A. Forbes, a minister, who had ruined Hallum's home. Col.
Hallum was utter stranger, and previous to the trial his "funeral" had been preached all over the county for the purpose of poisoning the people's mind against him. The lawyers, through fear of boycott, refused to defend him, and Col.
Hallum, being a noted lawyer and historian, defended himself, like Paul, when arraigned before Agrippa and Festus. Col. Hallum is an old man, his head white as snow, but his form straight as an Indian's. There he stood before a "packed" jury, and in a crowded court room, and spoke for three hours, and his speech was filled with pathos and Promethean fire; it was the most eloquent and forceful ever delivered in the history of American jurisprudence. Its publication gives to the world the greatest piece of forensic literature extant. At times during his speech there was not a dry eye in the audience. Several times the bailiff had to remove the crowd that crushed him in an endeavor to hear his every word; he was interrupted by a minister's wife presenting him with a bouquet of flowers. The jury acquitted him without leaving the box. The Sickle Publishing Co., Memphis, Tenn., has published all the facts in the case, and Col.
Hallum's famous speech in book form, and sells it for 50c direct. It is worth twice that amount, and everyone who believes in the virtue of woman and the protection of home should read it.

CALLED DOWN.

The Court of Appeals has decided the primary election case upon its merits, which makes it all the more significant that it did not so decide the Beckham case. It holds that the primary may be held, but must be held under the law in every respect. We shall hear no more of volunteer partisan officers, of premature closing of entries, of diverting expense funds to improper channels and other threatened violations of law. If they are attempted, steps will be taken to stop the frauds and enforce the law as construed by the Court, which directs the

I Coughed

"I had a most stubborn cough for many years. It deprived me of sleep and I grew very thin. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was quickly cured."
R. N. Mann, Fall Mills, Tenn.

Sixty years of cures and such testimony as the above have taught us what Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will do.

We know it's the greatest cough remedy ever made. And you will say so, too, after you try it. There's cure in every drop.

There are 120 drops in an ordinary bottle. The full right size bottle, 250 drops, is the best. It contains the most complete and reliable cough cure ever known.

FIGHT ON TRAIN.

First District Politicians Engage In a Scrap.

Mott Ayers and Clem Whittemore first district politicians had a fight on an I. C. train Tuesday. They gave conflicting statements of the affair. Ayers claims that Whittemore cursed him, adding:

"With that we both arose and I struck him several times, I then caught him by the throat and hurled him to the floor. We were separated, and he at once drew a pistol. I was unarmed. Believing my life was in danger, I seized a cuspidor and belabored him with it until we were again separated by friends. The row started over the auditor's race. I am for Hager and Mr. Whittemore is for Cheneault."

Whittemore alleges that Ayres and Henry Oliver, both of Fulton, jumped on him because he used forcible language in referring to Ayres' political acts. He claims that both men used cuspidors and beat him all the way to Fulton. He says he did not draw a pistol and that he did not get out of his seat, having no chance to defend himself. Whittemore is badly bruised.

Nervous weakness or palpitation of the heart—indigestion, disorder of the stomach and indigestion. Prickly Ash Bitters is a wonderful remedy in such cases. It cleanses, strengthens and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, removes the cause of the heart symptoms and builds up a strong and vigorous body. R. C. Hardwick.

PLEAD GUILTY.

C. E. Sapp and Others Confess to Soliciting Campaign Funds

Louisville, March 23.—C. E. Sapp former collector of internal revenue in this district, Joseph Potoning, a Republican politician, and Deputy Leonard Parsons were arraigned in the federal court this morning to answer to an indictment for soliciting campaign funds in a federal building and assessing federal employees for campaign purposes. All three entered pleas of guilty, and Sapp and Potoning were fined $500 each and Parsons was fined $200. Their action was a surprise to the majority of politicians, as it was thought they would fight the case to the bitter end.

Where can you invest money more profitably than by buying a bottle of Prickly Ash Bitters—you get four for one. A kidney medicine, a liver tonic, stomach strengthener and bowel cleanser. Four medicine for one dollar. R. C. Hardwick.

And Prisoner Paid Fine and Was Released.

On motion of the Commonwealth the charge of malicious shooting against Thos. M. Hill, under indictment for shooting and wounding his father, Burton Hill, was changed to shooting in sudden heat and passion. A fine of $50 was entered against the prisoner. The amount was paid and young Hill was released from jail Wednesday. Burton Hill is recovering from his wounds. One hand was amputated the day he was shot.

"THE PRISONER OF ZENDA."

This Famous Romance Still Maintains First Rank.

Of all the romantic dramas extant, possibly none has enjoyed the continuous prosperity or favorable criticism that has ever been accorded to "The Prisoner of Zenda." which will be presented at Holland's Opera House Friday night, March 27. From the night of its first presentation, when E. H. Sothern began a limited engagement in New York city with this play, which finally culminated in a run that extended far into a second season, until the present time, this famous romance still maintains the first rank in the dramatic offerings of its kind.

On its recent visit to the principal cities, making a tour which extended from New York city to San Francisco, it was everywhere greeted by an enormous attendance.

Time has not lessened its charms, nor weakened its drawing powers, for on this, its third triumphal tour, it continues to test the capacity of theatres everywhere.

A carefully chosen cast has been secured and a mass of new scenery supplied for the production by Ernest Shipman, director of the tour. Thos. B. Alexander, well remembered for artistic work in previous successes, will appear in the dual role of Rudolf Rassendyll, and Rudolf of Paritania, heading a large cast, each member of which has been carefully selected for their adaptation for the parts assigned. Miss Eloise Elliston, with her natural beauty and handsome gowns, will grace the performance as "Flavia."

Mr. Twyman is an experienced man in the business, very popular with all, has wide acquaintance, and will no doubt receive a liberal share of public favors.

COFFEY CASE

Will Go to the Jury Tomorrow Afternoon.

Eight Speeches in All, Half Of Which Have Been Made.

The murder cases of Jim Will Anderson and others, charged with killing R. H. Coffey, at Empire in Oct. 1901, are nearing the end of a protracted trial. There are to be eight speeches in the case and the argument is about half done.

Herman Southall, for the defense, opened the argument Wednesday morning in a speech of two hours.

It was the young man's maiden effort, and he acquitted himself in a most praiseworthy manner, making a strong presentation of his side of the case. In the afternoon he was followed by Mr. Hunter Wood, first for the prosecution, who showed in a very conclusive and convincing manner the strong array of evidence against the defendants and pointed out the weakness of the defense. Mr. Wood spoke for two hours and displayed rare judgment in handling the testimony in the case. His excellent arraignment was clearly and forcibly presented.

Mr. G. W. Southall followed for the defense, beginning Wednesday afternoon and concluding yesterday. His speech was about three hours long and covered every phase of the case, in an able and forcible manner. It was the finest argument Mr. Southall has ever made in a law case and was a powerful plea for acquittal.

Judge James Breathitt began yesterday afternoon for the prosecution and was making one of his characteristically able and strong arguments when these lines were written. It was expected that he would speak all of the afternoon.

To day Judge J. T. Hanbery will speak for the defense and he followed by Hon. Jas. B. Garnett, this afternoon. Tomorrow morning Judge W. A. Yost will close for the defense and the last argument for the Commonwealth will be made by Col. W. R. Howell.

A GEORGIA JUDGE WAS ALARMINGLY AFFLICTED WITH CATARRH OF THE LUNGS. CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

JUDGE DURHAM, OF GREENSBORO, GEORGIA.

Catarrh of the Lungs the First Stage of Consumption.

So All Medical Authorities Agree.

Judge Durham, a well-known local Judge of Greensboro, Ga., had an experience with Peruna well worth relating. A report had become current among the Judge's friends that he was threatened with consumption. It was feared for a time that Georgia was to lose one of its most prominent and influential citizens.

It was also reported that the Judge had failed to get any relief from any of the medical aid at his command, that he had made use of the now very famous remedy, Peruna, and made a prompt recovery. The affair created quite a sensation in medical circles especially, and the many friends of Judge Durham were not only exceedingly gratified at his recovery, but were enthusiastic in their praises of the remedy that had brought him relief.

The following written statement from the Judge himself set forth the facts:

Greensboro, Ga., March 3, 1900.

"Some time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and in my head. I tried many remedies, all of which gave me no relief. I concluded that my case was catarrh of the head and lungs, and seeing Peruna so highly recommended I began using it, experiencing the very best results from the first bottle.

A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonial is genuine; that we hold in our possession authentic letters certifying to the same. Every one of our testimonials are genuine and in the words of the one whose name is appended.

"I continued using Peruna for a short while, and have never felt the least symptoms of catarrh since. Peruna is certainly a good medicine, and deserves the highest praise which is given it by the general public."

Judge Durham has been Secretary and Treasurer of the city of Greensboro, Ga., for the past three years, and has been a local Judge for ten years.

Bread Consumption.

There are three roads which lead from health to consumption. Over one of these roads pass all of that great multitude of people who die every year of consumption. Each route begins with health and happiness and ends with disease and death.

First road: a slight cold—neglected—settles in the head or throat—chronic catarrh—extends to the lungs—consumption—death.

Second road: a slight cold—neglected—settles in the lungs—cough gradually growing worse—consumption—death.

Third road: a cold—neglected—settles in the throat—hoarseness—short breath—consumption—death.

Thousands have just started on one of these roads, all of whom could be easily cured by Peruna. Thousands more are half way to the fatal end of one of these roads who are still curable by a course of treatment by Peruna. Yet other thousands are near the end whose last days could be made bearable and hope of recovery more probable by commencing Peruna without delay.

ORPHAN BRIGADE

Will Erect a Monument Over Grave of a Comrade.

Louisville, Ky., March 10.—At a meeting of the Orphan Brigade today, after appropriate remarks in regard to the death of Capt. Ed Porter Thompson, the Brigade Historian, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Great as is the general loss to Kentucky and to the South, and all liberty-loving people, the death of the devoted, self-sacrificing soldier, State official, educator and Christian gentleman, Capt. Ed Porter Thompson, who departed to the Paradise of God, March 5, 1903, comes as an impressive bereavement to each member of the Orphan Brigade. From the date of his enlistment, forty-one years ago, he had devoted almost every day to thoughtful service for the brigade's advancement in usefulness and honor. No body of soldiers ever had a nobler benefactor. His history is the most remarkable in the annals of ancient modern warfare, as each member has appropriate mention. No one can ever fill his place.

"Resolved, That we will ever treasure his precious memory; that we commend his sorrowing loved ones to the God of love, who doeth all things well."

We ask the surviving members and friends of the Orphan Brigade to contribute at once to place over his grave a suitable monument.

Remittance may be made to Thos. D. Osborne, Brigade Secretary, Louisville, Ky. (Signed)

I. P. Barnard, Theo. L. Burnett, Sam H. Buchanan, J. H. Weller, Thos. Cowherd, John W. Green, Committee on Resolutions.

Thomas Jefferson's Rules.

Jefferson was not a devotee of any particular form of ecclesiasticism, but he was a believer in God, in the higher life and in purity. He practiced the Golden Rule far better than many statesmen of a later date.

"The following ten rules of conduct from his pen might well be pasted in the hat of every clerk, stenographer, book-keeper—employer and employee—in Chicago. Cut out, framed, and given place on every desk in this great heart of American commercialism these maxims, studied as men hustle, would make us all wiser and better:

"Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day."

"Never trouble another for what you can do yourself."

"Never spend your money before you have earned it."

"Never buy what you do not want because it is cheap."

"Pride cost more than hunger, thirst and cold."

"We seldom repent of having eaten too little.

"Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly."

"How much pain evils have cost us that have never happened."

"Take things always by the smooth handle."

"When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry count a hundred."

Mexican Mustang Liniment
is excellent for Rheumatism and all deep-seated pains.

For Sprains and Strains

It is useless to apply a liniment that remains on or near the surface. On the contrary, they require something that goes down into the flesh where the trouble is located. That is why is the best thing to use for Sprains and Strains. It penetrates at once to where the injury lies, drives out the inflammation and breaks the wounded tissues and tendons. Don't be stingy in using the liniment nor fail to rub it in as thoroughly as the soreness will permit.

is a good thing to have on hand when accidents happen.

Handsome Fee on Other Claims.

Capt. C. C. Calhoun Wednesday received from Auditor Coulter a check for the biggest fee that has been paid in this State for years. It was paid to him in connection with the State's war claim, and call for $71,199.00. Capt. Calhoun gave Auditor Coulter his personal check in return for the deduction called for by the opinion of Attorney General Pratt, and this sum was turned back into the treasury.

The size of the fee paid Capt. Calhoun for collecting the Spanish war claims recently paid out to the soldiers has not been made public, but is said have amounted to a handsome sum. One authority has it that it was $8,000, but this is not official.

This money was never turned in, to the State Treasury, but was paid out by Gov. Beckham's paymasters. —Frankfort Journal.

Neosho Falls, Kans., Nov. 13, '01. Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill. Dear Sirs:—For almost fifteen years I suffered from indigestion, and last winter thought I would die, when my doctor, Dr. A. J. Lawrence, of this place, advised me to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which I did, and two bottles cured me. It not only relieved me, but it cured me so that I have not been troubled since. If any one should offer me $500 for the good Syrup Pepsin has done me I would not think of taking it. No one can take your medicine without being convinced of its more than wonderful cures. I recommend it to all my friends as a laxative and stomach remedy. Yours with gratitude,

ABOUT PAINTING!

SPRING TIME Reminds Us Of PAINTING

Nature does most of her painting at this season. She prefers green, but if you like some other color better we guarantee we've got it. We've got it ready-mixed and the lead and oil for you to mix it. In ready-mixed we sell the paint that has been sold here for 26 years and never a single complaint made of it. That's the Sherwin & Williams Company's Paint.

It covers more surface than any other paint and lasts longer and looks better.
That's why it is still sold here in such large quantities. Half car load a year.
Have cheaper paints if that's what you are looking for. Bound to please you in one way or the other.

CAN YOU AFFORD

To put your handsome "RADIANT HOME" HEATER out in the coal house for the summer, take risk of breakage and rust, and pay insured help to half-clean and set it up again next fall? Now think about this as a money-saver and satisfactory arrangement and have us send for your stove. We are responsible for all breakage and keep them fully insured while in storage. The plated chimney is detached, every piece carefully wrapped, your name and date plainly marked on tags securely fastened to the stove and to each separate part, and an itemized receipt is sent to you showing what we are to return, amount of charges and repairs, if any are required. Notify us when you want the stove returned and we replace it already for fire, black parts well polished, plated work highly burnished and looking just like new. Our men are careful and make no noise or dirt in removing or replacing stoves. That the charges are fair and the service satisfactory is amply shown in the fact that those who have stored stoves with us for years are now giving us their business for this year. Think this over and ask your neighbor what she thinks about it. We only mentioned "Radiant Home," but for storage any name will do. We take all that offer, but this is a good place to remind you that 5 years service has not yet made demand for one piece of repair for "Radiant Home" Stoves. You know the fire pots are fully guaranteed for five years.
